What is Little Britches?

The Central Oklahoma Little Britches Rodeo Association is a youth rodeo that is ready to take Oklahoma by storm! We plan to have a rockin' good time while putting on a professional rodeo! The COLBRA is a franchise of the National Little Britches Rodeo Association "NLBRA" and open to children 5-18 years of age.

It is all about the kids and to that degree Little Britches Rodeo is a family "business". Little Britches is designed to help the children progress as they mature. We have 3 age groups (5 divisions) Little Wranglers, Jr. Girls and Jr. Boys, Sr. Girls and Sr. Boys. Your sponsorship will be used to reward these young athletes for their hard work and accomplishments. In addition, 10% of each sponsorship is reserved for scholarships awarded to COLBRA members.

Little Britches Rodeo's slogan is "Where Legends Begin" and it is TRUE! Little Britches Rodeo has helped produce some of the top professional cowboys and cowgirls including: Ty Murray, Butch and Rope Meyers, Kyle Hughs, K.C. Jones, Kristie Peterson, Marlene McRae, Shali Lord, Cimarron Gerke, Todd Sunh, and many more.

The National Finals rodeo will be held July in Guthrie, Oklahoma! To qualify for nationals a contestant must place in the top 7 at four rodeos! We want to get each child qualified for Nationals, we believe it's the experience of a lifetime!

We thank our sponsors for seeing our vision of growing the COLBRA. Without our sponsors we could not provide life changing opportunities for the kids of COLBRA!!
